Our Inspiration

Mr. Harish Bhambari was born in a middle-class family in the small town of Sambhar in Rajasthan (INDIA). After completing his graduation he started working with the State Bank of India. He was the eldest of all three brothers. Family, values, and ethics were the pillars of his life. Along with his bank job, he dedicated his time and efforts to establishing his younger brother (Sunil Bhambari) in the printing industry. He helped in setting up a printing unit which with time, effort, and the support of his younger brother became one of the leading printers in Chandigarh.

After a successful Banking career, he decided to take the plunge and started his own printing and packaging company with his brothers in Baddi (Himachal Pradesh). His sons also joined the business and took it to a new level.

With a vision to make it one of the best service providers in the region, he dedicated all of his time and energy with hard work and perseverance. With time the company gained ground and soon became a well-known name in the region. As the business grew, the company started to expand its reach and now has a presence in several cities across India.

The firm supplied packaging materials to some of the leading FMCG, Pharma, and automotive Sector. Mr. Harish Bhambari was a highly experienced and well-respected professional in the printing and packaging industry. He has been part of several professional organizations and associations and is actively involved in various industry forums. Mr. Harish Bhambari has always been a leader in the industry and has an impressive portfolio of successful projects that have helped the company reach its current heights. He was a strong believer in the power of innovation and has always encouraged the development of new ideas and processes to ensure that the company remains at the forefront of the industry.

He also had a strong social presence, donating to many charities, helping the underprivileged, and sponsoring educational projects in rural areas. He was a man of great integrity and charisma. He was a true leader and mentor, leading by example and inspiring many. He passed away in 2021, leaving behind a great legacy of ethics, values, and hard work.
